The Congregational Christian Endeavor society served a chicken pie supper in the vestry Friday evening which was a great success in every way. The young ladies of the church cooked the supper and the young men acted as waiters to the eminent satisfaction of every one.

Mrs. Harriet Dunston has rented and furnished a front room on the second floor of the Martin house on Main street and is now comfortably located there. She plans to do sewing, mending and fancy work.

Mrs. Herbert Cable is going to open a military parlor this spring in her rooms over Mrs. F. J. Willey's.

The Household Science Circle of the Union club held a very pleasant meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Theodore Vail. The ladies drove up in a big team and enjoyed a social and profitable meeting devoted to the subject of "Domestic Service." They visited the greenhouses, and discussed the variations of their subject over a social cup of chocolate and cakes.

Birthday parties were numerous on Friday, March 18. This being the eighth anniversary of Master Charles Watson's birth, he celebrated the occasion by inviting about sixteen of his schoolmates from six to eight in the evening. A merry time was enjoyed with games and refreshments, the table being decorated appropriately for St. Patrick's Day, so near. The young host was made happy by a number of presents. On the same evening, Sherburne Campbell celebrated the eleventh anniversary of his birth by a party. Eight boys of about his own age were entertained by him from seven to nine. They enjoyed a pleasant time with games of all kinds and refreshments of ice cream and cakes, including a handsomely decorated birthday cake. He was the recipient of a number of pretty and useful gifts.
